DESIREE F. is an artist, illustrator, & designer working in New Jersey, USA.

Her freelance practice consists of illustration and design for print and web. With a thorough understanding and fervent appreciation for design trends, she takes on projects with the intent of creating eye-catching material that conveys clear and striking messaging. She aims to uplift her clients' mission in her work.

In her own personal work, she continues to practice and hone her artistic skills in a variety of creative digital platforms and traditional mediums. She hopes to one day create a series of independently published works including graphic novels, short films, and video games.

desiree f. is a graduate of Fine Arts from William Paterson University and a recent summer residency alumni of the School of Visual Arts in New York, New York.

She has freelanced for several small businesses and local institutions for illustration and design projects, such as Cozz Coffee Roasting Co., the Paterson Museum, and the Zimmerli Art Museum at Rutgers University.
